We hope for everybody a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Gifts for the Young at Heart

Quite often it is the "senior citizen" who is most difficult to buy for — but it needn't be so. Gifts that "look ahead" are always appreciated . . . gifts such as a subscription to a magazine or book club, or a roll of postage stamps in a pretty container.

In Memoriam

In memory of my Dad during this 1978 Christmas: Everett Walker (Pete) Martin.

As the Christmas Season grows closer, and the year comes to an end, I think of you more and more and my love to you I send. Soon there will be a new year and lots of things ahead, but I'll always remember you when I say my prayers and off I go to bed.

You Son,
E.W. Jr.

Wrap Gifts with Imagination, Too

Don't just use paper and ribbon when you wrap your gifts this Christmas — use a lot of imagination as well!

Wrap that small gift for a teenager in a colorful cotton bandana that she can wrap around her head after Christmas.

If you have some wallpaper left over from your last remodeling project, use that instead of traditional holiday paper.

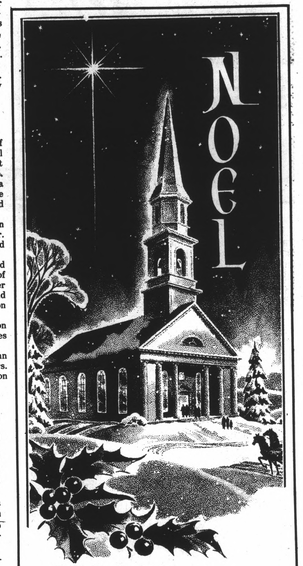
Use colored tape for a frame (tape along the edges of your package) and paste an attractive design you've cut out from an old Christmas card, and you'll have a pretty holiday "picture" atop your present.

The Sunday funnies make ideal wrapping paper for youngsters' gifts; and it won't hurt so much when they tear it all to shreds!

Dab watercolor paints on white paper for an interesting, colorful abstract design to wrap packages in.

Fabrics, especially red or green or prints, make great wrappings for gifts and can always be used afterward; to make a pillow, for instance.

Cut out felt trees, stars and other designs to glue on top of packages for an attractive design.



To God be the Glory,
Great things He has done,
As He gave His only begotten son,
Who was born in Bethlehem
for you and me;
That we may have life and have
it more abundantly.
I thank you & Praise God for each of you in your own way,
How you have blessed my life.

I thank each of you for all that you have done for me in the past and pray to God that I may have helped to bring some Joy & Happiness to your life as you have to mine.

I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Your Friend,
Steve

Raiderettes Off To Bad Start

By Dana Ford

The J. V. Raiderettes have had an unfortunate start this season. Playing Heritage and Glass have proved to be a tough start, Although the team has lost its first three games, certain players have given the fans a lot to look forward to. But you can't take away from the effort and support of the rest of the team members.

Ruby Smith, an eighth grader, who has been nicknamed "Lightning," has really dazzled the fans with her tremendous performance. The other member who have been playing good games include Janis Richardson, Cindy Lawhorn, Angie Murray, Marlene Ferguson and Angie White. But as everyone knows without the co-operation and support of the remaining team members, these girls might not be where they are today.

The first district game starts December 19, against Altavista. Members of the team wish to encourage everyone to come out and lend support.

Raiderettes Show Determination

Determination is the name of the game when the ACHS Raiderettes play, and Tuesday night was no exception. The Raiderettes were defeated in a home game against Heritage, 50-30.

Appomattox was outdone in shooting from the floor, 48% to 20%. Free throws were in Appomattox's favor with 33.3% to 29%. High scorers for Appomattox were Susan Handy and Annette Carter with 11 and 6 points, respectively. Delois Moss was high scorer for Heritage with 16 points.

The next game on the Raiderette's agenda is Friday night at Jefferson Forest. Tipoff time is 6:30 so come out and support the team!

Raider Jayvee Basketball Underway

The Raider Jayvee basketball team played two games last week defeating Buckingham 64 to 60 before bowing to Nelson County 50 - 45.

Coach Jim Crawford's only comment about the games indicated that the win over Buckingham was a team effort and the loss to Nelson was a lack of hustle by the entire squad.

According to Coach Crawford, the Raiders missed three lay-ups and five free throws in the fourth period of the Nelson game.

The Jayvees are 1 and 1 for the season.
